ports the Administration of Franklin Pierce:—
Doubtful.

Judge Bronson, Gen. Ward, Judge Vanderhilt, Messrs. Cooley, O'Connor, Mitchell, Fay, Follett, Clark, left him two years ago, and took with them
the "Hard" division of the party.

Last fall, Preston King, Abijah Mann, William C. Byrant, Silas M. Burroughs, James W. Nye,
Henry B. Stanton, Bradford R. Wood, Phillip Dorahimer, and others, "too numerous to mention, "repudiated him, and with a large proportion of the "Barnburner" division, helped to lay the foundation of the Republican Party.

Now there is a third exodus, carrying off the very bone and sinew of what was left of the Party. Among those who now refuse to hoist the fing or keep step to the music of the Administration, are such men as Ariel S. Thurston, the soft candidate last fall for Treasurer; Addison M.

Knox, lust fall their candidate for Judge; exSpeaker Chatfield, ex-reporter Selden, ex-Senaator Carroll, H. H. Van Dyck and Benjamin Woleb, Jr., the conductors of the leading Democratic journals; Messrs. Wadsworth, Huntington, Fowler, Townsond, Angel, Hunt, and othera, long occupants of prominent official or political positions.

A few second rate papers, and a few third rate tions.

A few second rate papers, and a few third rate politicians, are all that are left to Gen. Pierce, in this State, of that majestic party which swept him into power in 1852 as by an avalanche.—Sie transit gloria mundi.—Alliany Evening Journal.

Democratic Waste of Money. Democratic Waste of Money.

The cost of the United States Navy, in the most expensive year of Washington's Administration, was $768,889 82. Clingman, of North Carolina, says that the "Democrate" last year in Congress spent on printing public documents, $1,600,000 !—twice as much as the Father of his country spent in our Naval service.

During only one year of Washington's Administration did the whole expense of the American Army even equal the cost of that one year's printing ordered by "Democratic" Congressmen. In each and every other year, the printing hill exceeded the entire Military accounts of George Washington's time by at least half a million of dollars!

Washington's time by at least half a million of dollers!

Consider some of the items of the demand at the Federal Treasury door, now pressed by these Democrats: They are clamoring for $5,009 for "purchase of trees and tree-boxes"—for $5,000 for "purchase of trees and tree-boxes"—for $5,000 for "purchase of trees and tree-boxes"—for $5,000 for "rebuilding Franklin Engine-house in Washington City"—for $3,000 for "taking care" of some grounds, south of the President's House, (there will be separate and larger items for each of the other three points of the compass,) $3,000 for "repairs of Pennsylvania Avenne," (it belongs to Washington City to repair as much as State Street does to Albany)—$6,000 for "sewer opening" in Pennsylvania Avenue—$3,000 for "filling up a ravine" in that Judiciary Square (who has ever seen that ravine?)—$19,200 "for engraving" the Pacific Rail Road Survey—*$200,000 for account of the Washington Water Works!—$50,535 for "extra copies" of the Patent Office Report of 61, a totally worthless publication, if it was even timely.

A casual perusal of any debate upon the Deficiency Efficiency timely.

A casual perusal of any debate upon the Deficiency Bill in Congress, will be enough to impressupon the mind a consciousness of the fact that "Democratic" misrule is driving the nation into waste and prodigality at rail road speed, What would a careful survey of the official accounts of this aggregate profligacy show the People?—Athing Lecting Journal.

KANSAS NOTICE! There will be a Joint Meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Board and the Directors of the Milwaukee County Kansas Aid Society, at the rooms of the State Society, No. 198, East Water-street, this Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A full attendance, is requested, as important business will be brought before the meeting. JAMES S. DOUGLASS, President. Milwaukee, May 28, 1843,

The Rekublican Primary Meetings.

We have but brief space in which to call at tention to the calls published above, for the meetings in the several wards, and towns to choose delegates to the Republican State Convention, which meets next week. Surely, in these times, when the battle for Freedom is already opened with bloodshed and connonading of defenceless towns in Kaneas, no words of ours can be necessary to call out a full attendance at and tried Republicans, and those only go to take counsel, and act together at the State Convention.

NEWS OF THE MORNING. We get some meagre details of the sacking of Lawrence, Kausus, by the border ruffians under the command of Gov. Shannon and the Marshals. Having taken prisoners all the leaders of theFree Statemen, under various pretences, and having obtained orders from President Pierce which prevented Col. Summer from interfering to protect the outraged and abused people of Lawrence, they have battered it down and sacked, driving its inhabit ants elsewhere, shelterless. This is no exaggeration. The Milwaukee and Horicon Rail Road is certainly one of the most promising enterprizes in the North-West. The beauty and fertility of the Country which it traverses; the rapidity with which this region is filling up; the numerous thriving villages which trade which the road will tap, and the comparative cheapness and facility of its construction; all combine to justify the confident expectations of its projectors, that as a paying road the Mil-

Osroor, Jan. 25, 1856.

It is customary for all Nils travellers to enter he name of the boat, together with the names of the passengers, and day of departure, in an album kept at one of the public houses in Calro. Many go so far as to have an exact likeness of their boats palated in this book, exhibiting the colors and private flags, just as they are under full sail. This is a fashion particularly among the English, not only occasioned by its being considered by them as nobly, but it is pleasant to ecognize and be recognized by friends when eeting, and being met, on the river so far from their homes. In looking over this album I found much that was amusing. The last entry before urs, was a fine looking Kangia painted, having on its private flug the pleture of a flea. The constantly increasing travel on the Vile has brought into requisition an entirely diferent kind of boat from the old crazy, slow dahabriks formerly used. A description of the tueen of Sheba, which we called ours-she being ist off the stocks-although of a superior qualty, will answer for the whole. She is a keel hoat of about forty-five feet in length, fifteen in breadth, with a double deck on half her length, and has a few feet in her hold. The main cabin some thirty feet in length, is divided off into four rooms. The main one in front is used for a sitting and dining room, and the others for eleeping apartments. These rooms have the usual divans unning around them, generally found in all dwelling houses in these lands, which are used for settees in the day time, and for beds at night. Around the first named room are convenient shelves for books, brackets for our two guns, and a small shelf where, among many other conveniners, may be always seen the butt end of one of Cult's revolving pistols, a sine qua non for all persons who travel in semi-barbarian countries. obedience and respect, where arguments and the hide of the hippopotames fail. In front the deck is covered with an awning for some ten feet making it a pleasant place to sit and read. Still further in front of this is the cook's establishment, which occupies a small space. The hold is occupied by the sailor's bedding, provisions and sleeping. We have two masts to our craftone in front and the other in the rear. The for mer has a large lateen sail, such as is used upon the Mediterranean. It is seventy feet long, and just the shape of the wing of a bird. Oning to the sudden winds and the changes to which they are subject on the Nile, it is suspended in such a namer that its position can be changed very rapidly, as they never furl them only when they are not in use. On the deck, over the cabin, these meetings of ficemen, who will see that true stands the pilot, an old Nubian, whose dark skin and time proportions would admirably serve as a model for a ligure head in some better craft .--The cabins are well lighted and the windows have tasty curtains, as well as green blinds. Men and Things in Gotham. New York, May 19, 1856. Missas, Epirons; -- Alternate days of rain and shine, heat and cold, have characterized the weather here for the past 10 days. Weather bright and beautiful as we may imagine had its idvent dally in paradice, has contrasted strongly with that so cold and gloomy and unseasonable as to conduce to innumerable hodily illsand mis ory, and predispose one to take an uncommon and favorable view of that great question, " to be or not to be," on the not to be side. Immense quantities of fluid the thirsty earth has licked up, evidently refreshed by its liquid diet, and ment, which has a most precations existence in up in this great "brickery;" I hear the clatter Not that I think it absolutely indispensable to of their horses hoofs or the rumble of their protect life, but the sight of it often enforces whoels in the burbarous hours of morn, and know that go rushing by, small squadrons of jauntily accounted bolles and beaux; for when reflection at a later hour inclines them homeward one sees straggling masses of weary equestrians, believing in attitudes nothing, coming up slowly from the ruralities of life, to the city roar. 'Tis astonishing the amount of this sort of work that is done the year round; indeed young Gotham sets his affections as well as carcase, on a horse, and beyond that his ideas of manliness and chivalry and what belongs to that category of qualities, do not go; bounded by a horse, there is no world beyond for him.

The anniversary excitement has just passed, and the season seemed to attract less attention than usual, either from the fact that there was less to do and be seen than usual, or from the appropitious character of the weather, which was calculated throughout to cast a damper on the most zealous cause. The unwented crowd of white cravate and faces in which the world had left few of its dark traces, have disappeared, and the question naturally arises whether the gather ing of ministers together in a community like ours is productive of good or evil to them, whatever may be its effect on the people at large,-Learning and goodness are no match against low cunning and knowledge of the world, and while the first respects nothing, the last is ever on the watch to line and destroy if possible, and the The Kangio is manned by a Captain called the personal experiences of some of the brethren, i.

> THREE P. M. REPORT. Latest from Kansay.

Cuttago, May 26.
The Chicago Tubune publishes an item, based The Chicago Tribune publishes an item, based upon intelligence brought by those men recently from Lawrence, from which we learn that a company of Missournus made their appearance near Lawrence on Monday. They were reinforced until they numbered nearly 400 men. They bore dags and bannors with all devices except the stars and stripes of the United States.

During the forenoon the Commutee of Safety sent a note to the Marshal, at the head of this array, assuring him that they would make no resistance to any process he might wish to serve.—They asked of him protection of their lives and property. He made no answer.

About 11 o'clock a Deputy Marshal, with a force of 10 men, made his appearance, summoned four men to assist him in making arrests, and took G. W. Deitzler, and G. W. Smith prisoners. This posse took dinner at the Uree State Hotel, and after dunier temoved their pissoners without molestation. Sheriff Jones soon after made his appearance with 10 men, he did not attempt and accounts. out molestation. Sheriff Jones soon after made his appearance with 10 men, he did not attempt any arrests, but multingly demanded all the mivate and public arms and gave the people five minutes to necede to his demand, threatening in case of refusal, to storm the town. One field piece was given up, but the people refused to surrender their private arms. In a half an hou hie returned with an overwhelming force, and two pieces of artiflery, and commanded the work of destruction to commence, by a cannounde on the Free State Hotel, and the Herald of Freedom printing office. The former was destroyed, and the press and types of the latter were broken up and destroyed.

The women and children fled in all directions No time was given to save property. The Mis sourious were yelling through the streets like se manny demons—threatening every man with death. The Tribune's informant left at 8[o'clock fitteen miles from Lawrence he saw a volume of smoke and a great light in that direction; his no doubt but that the town is destroyed. LATER.—Another message that left Leavenworth just before the departure of the beat, says that several men had been killed by Jones' party, and their bodies were lying in the street.— It is ferred that Gen Pomeroy but been hung by the mob. Gov. Robinson is at Lecompton in the hands of the authorities. Shanron, it is the hands of the authorities. Shanron, it is said, is no more than a prisoner among the Missonians; he is only a thing to sign pupers with. One thousand or fifteen hundred Missonians are in the territory. Reeder is supposed to be in a place of safety—he it daily expected here, via Nebraska and Iowa. The mob threatened to hang Robinson, G. W. Brown and Deitzler, allon one tree. The free state men will make a stind at Topeka and fight it out, they are now gathering in that point. Atchison is in the Teirfory with the camon used in the invasion. The U. Stroops are not allowed to stir from their quarters, though anxious to protect the settlers. A ters, though anxious to protect the settlers, evil war rages on the frontier. Rotlano, N. Y , May 20 The seythe factors in Fayette, together with a grist and saw mill, a Tannery and Machine shop, were burnt on Saturday. Loss $40,000.

CINCINNATI, May 26 The city is filling rapidly with delegates to the Convention. The delegates from Virginia Loui-siana, Kentucky and Texas are all here. Nyw York, May 26th.

SZNAIR—Mr. Pierce stated that the special committee to investigate the assault committee to investigate the assault committee to investigate the assault committee on Mr. Summer, found at impossible to pursue the investigaton properly without power to send for papers, and asked that such power be gived agreed to.

Mr. Weller presented a petition from 75,000 citizens of California, asking for a wagen road to connect California with the States. Signatures were bound in largo volumed. Mr. Weller integed the importance of the measurer. Mr. W. also introduced a hill for the construction of a Military road, from the western bhundry of Missouri to Carson's valley, and another for the construction of a Military road from Ell Passo to Fort Yuliula.

Sr. Louis, May 26.

The steamer Nebiaska lying at the levee, bound for New Orleans with 800 tons produce on board enight fire in the hold this morning, and before the flames could be subdued, bost and cargo sustained heavy damage.
